EXPERIENCE

GRAPHICHUG™

Editor-in-Chief, September 2008 - present

An online forum to share my love for graphic design with friends. It has quickly evolved into an international network of designers. Through GraphicHug I have managed several collaborative projects, monitored and boosted site traffic, co-edited an book showcasing the talents of our contributors, and launched an online store.

FREELANCE DESIGNER

Summer 2006 - present

I have worked on contract for several designers and agencies in NYC and Boston. My placements have been a mixture of onsite and offsite projects. These experiences helped me learn to join teams, adapting to a wide array of roles quickly.

TANK DESIGN CAMBRIDGE, MA

Designer, Winter 2007 - Spring 2009

Have worked extensively on various FedEx interactive projects applying both design and strategic skills. Most notable project being FedEx Office, which went live in January, 2009. Also, I have handled various print, interactive, and branding projects for other clients such as Puma.

MOTH DESIGN BOSTON, MA

Freelance Designer, Fall - Winter 2006

In this small studio environment, I worked intensely with clients. Developed a kidswear print catalogue from start to finish. Completed several print pieces for academic clients.

SEGURA INC. CHICAGO, IL

Design Intern, Summer 2005

Worked closely with the creative director and senior designers on Corbis catalogue materials. Was responsible for various print projects and learned invaluable production skills. Interacted directly with clients to finalize design decisions and apply corrections.
